“It’s great to see so many FCT people involved in this important and fun initiative. I have also noticed many more moustaches about Town this month in Oakville. So it is a great way to get the community involved in raising money for a good cause like prostate cancer research,” said Kevin Flynn. “I am impressed with some of the moustaches here at FCT. ”

The First Canadian Ticklers are a 15 member team of employees from FCT (First Canadian Title) who are raising money for prostate cancer as part of the Movember moustache growing fundraiser. First Canadian Tickler Captain, Adam Jarczyzn is a veteran of the Mo-vement and was inspired to bring the initiative to the office.

“The value of Movember is the sense of community it inspires, both in and out of the office,” said Jarczyn. “There is no denying that we all have been touched by cancer, and Movember is a great way to serve the community we live in while making it fun to build awareness. Our team even has a “few Mo’Sistas” too and together we have raised almost $2,000 to date.”

The First Canadian Ticklers hope to raise over $2500.
